

What are we learning this week?

7/11/16

This week we are continuing with our look at people who help us with the focus being 'Postal Workers'. This week is also our week for preparing for our corridor display. The theme we have chosen is 'Winter Poetry'. We will be studying the poem 'Cold' by Shirley Hughes and looking at rhyming words. You may like to follow this up at home by visiting the website below.

<http://theimaginationtree.com/2010/10/misty-by-shirley-hughes.html>

In art, we will be looking at winter themes, painting wintery trees and responding to the poems we have heard through art and music. Useful Websites:

<http://theimaginationtree.com/2016/03/the-importance-of-rhyme-in-early-literacy-development.html> (Makes very interesting reading)

In maths this week, we will be having a focus on Capacity. We will be asking questions such as which container holds more? Holds the least? We will also be asking the children to order the containers (holds the least to holds the most).

<http://www.abc.net.au/countusin/games/game15.htm>

You may like to share the Shirley Hughes poem 'Misty' (we have attached), at home and look for rhyming words. Please send in any writing your child does with you and drawings too!

You can also look for adjectives (describing words e.g. muddy, wet, slippery), as the children have looked at these also in class.

We hope you enjoy looking at the websites we have included this week. To make it easier, if you go to our school website the 'What we are learning letters' are posted each week and there you can click on the websites. Please let us know if you find these useful or require any further ideas or support.

Misty

Mist in the morning,
Raw and nippy,
Leaves on the pavement,
Wet and slippery.
Sun on fire
Behind the trees,
Muddy boots,
Muddy knees.

Shop windows,
Lighted early,
Soaking grass,
Dewy, pearly.
Red, lemon,
Orange and brown,
Silently, softly,
The leaves float down.

