

Cauliflowers fluffy

Cauliflowers fluffy and cabbages green,
Strawberries sweeter than any I've seen.
Beetroot purple and onions white,
All grow steadily day and night.

*The apples are ripe, and the plums are red,
The broadbeans are sleeping in the blankety bed.*

Blackberries are juicy and rhubarb sour,
Marrows fatt'ning, hour by hour.
Gooseberries hairy and lettuces fat,
Radishes round and runner beans flat.

*The apples are ripe, and the plums are red,
The broadbeans are sleeping in the blankety bed.*

Harvest rock and roll

Clap your hands together for harvest time!
Everybody come and stand in line.
Put your best foot forward and dig the earth;
Time to do some weeding for all your worth!

Scatter all the seeds, then take a rest.
Pray that with good weather we'll be blessed,
And then with your heart and soul
Join in the harvest rock and roll!

Oo yeah, harvest rock and roll!
Oo yeah, harvest rock and roll!
Oo yeah, harvest rock and roll!
Oo yeah, harvest rock and roll!
And now with your heart and soul
Join in the harvest rock and roll!

Let's Harvest

The summer sun is lower in the sky
The leaves on the trees are slowly turning dry
There's a message on the breeze
It says 'it's time; it's time, oh please'

*So, let's harvest - reap what we sow
Let's harvest - eat what we grow
Let's harvest - reap what we sow
Let's harvest - eat what we grow
And when the sun goes down
We'll share it all around*

The fruit trees bend and nod, the time is now
The golden fields are ready for the plough
And when our work is done
Then the autumn comes

*So, let's harvest - reap what we sow
Let's harvest - eat what we grow
Let's harvest - reap what we sow
Let's harvest - eat what we grow
And when the sun goes down
We'll share it all around*
