

What are we learning this week!

This week we will be following the story of the Jolly Christmas Postman, helping him to deliver his post to all his fairytale friends.

On Friday we will be wearing our Christmas Jumpers it will be lovely to see you all in yours, In Support of Save the Children.

On Monday 18th it is our Christmas party we are very excited as the big man himself will be making a guest appearance.

In literacy we will be listening to the Jolly Christmas Postman and making our own Christmas story and mapping out which route we would take if we were a postman.

In art we will continue with our creative Christmas reindeer baking and decorating them.

In maths we will be beginning to represent numbers using our fingers in the snow. Making snowflake patterns to go on your windows at home.

In Understanding the World - We will share at group times what we like to do in the holidays.

Child initiated activities

- Split pin Santa's
- Making Christmas crackers
