Gruffalo Banquet - Wednesday 4th October

Dear Parents/Carers,

The children have enjoyed reading 'The Gruffalo' this week as the start to our topic of, 'The Gruffalo and Friends.' Next week we will be holding a 'Gruffalo Banquet' with the children, with the children helping to make the food. The children will be making food to represent the different characters and objects from the story.

- Roasted fox sandwiches (Red Leicester cheese sandwiches)
- Mouse sandwiches (Jam sandwiches)
- Scrambled snake (Lime jelly with grapes in)
- Owl's treetop house (chocolate shredded wheat cakes)
- Gruffalo's orange eyes (cheese ball crisps)
- Cucumber sticks (grass)
- Gruffalo's green poisonous wart (grapes)
- Snake's Log Pile house (breadsticks)
- Gruffalo's knobby knees (twiglets)

We are asking for a donation of £1.50 to help cover the costs of the ingredients. If your child has allergies that prevent them from eating any of the above ingredients please indicate on the slip below and return to their class teacher.

Thank you for your continued support,
Yours sincerely,

The Foundation Team
