12th September 2016  Safeguarding Standard

Dear Parent/Carers

In our PSHE lessons this term, we will be discussing the NSPCC's Underwear Rule. This is designed to teach pupils how to stay safe from sexual abuse, without giving explicit information or telling scary stories or even using the term "sexual abuse."

In the lesson, children will learn about the 'PANTS' acrostic, which stands for:
Privates are private □ Always remember your body belongs to you □ No means no □
Talk about secrets that upset you □ Speak up, someone can help

The lesson will be delivered in a way that's fully age-appropriate.

If you would like to know more about the NSPCC's campaign and see how you can help keep your children safe in partnership with your child's school, more information can be found at nspcc.org.uk/underwearrule

If you have any questions or concerns please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Thank you for your continued support
The Foundation Team.
